

Cabaret Theatre: 9th Annual Original Play Festival Playwright Application

Thank you for your interest in proposing a scene for Cabaret Theatre's 9th Annual Original Play Festival! The Original Play Festival is designed around original plays written by Rutgers undergraduate and graduate students, directed by both new and experienced directors with a focus on creating opportunities for all involved.

The selected plays vary between comedies and dramas and vary in length. The chosen playwrights will be able to communicate with directors throughout the process to assist with creating a successful vision. Directors who are chosen to direct in the Original Play Festival will be paired with one of the plays already selected to be in the Play Festival based on their application. This is a unique opportunity to have scenes performed at the student level while in contact with the director of the material, in addition to an opportunity for aspiring new directors to direct a shorter piece.

* Please note we are only accepting applications from Rutgers University undergraduate and graduate students. Due to University constraints, we will not consider any applications from non-students.

If you are interested in writing a short play for consideration, please email your scripts to artistic.cabarettheatre@gmail.com, jillianjhanna@yahoo.com, eaal34@scarletmail.rutgers.edu, ajmathews01@gmail.com by midnight on JANUARY 24th!
